Schools and Colleges

College of Letters and Science

www.college.ucla.edu

The liberal arts curriculum of the UCLA College of Letters and Science begins by bringing together perspectives from many fields to analyze issues, pose questions and train students to think and write creatively as well as critically. Students then concentrate on a particular field in depth. More than 100 majors are offered within four academic divisions: Humanities, Life Sciences, Physical Sciences and Social Sciences. Applications are accepted from freshmen and junior-level transfer students.

School of the Arts and Architecture

www.arts.ucla.edu

Headed by a faculty of renowned visual artists and performers, the School of the Arts and Architecture is a highly regarded center for creative expression and research. The curriculum combines practical training in visual and performing mediums with a broad-based liberal arts education. Students enjoy a variety of opportunities to perform and exhibit on campus. Applications are accepted from freshmen and junior-level transfer students. Upon receipt of the application for admission, the individual department will require you to submit supplemental application materials [e.g. portfolios, auditions, etc.].

Henry Samueli School of Engineering and Applied Science

www.engineer.ucla.edu

The Henry Samueli School of Engineering and Applied Science ranks among the top ten engineering schools in the country. The nine majors within the school are structured to align with the traditional specialties characteristic of the engineering profession. Undergraduate programs prepare students for immediate professional careers as well as for advanced studies in engineering or other fields. Applications are accepted from freshmen and junior-level transfer students.

School of Nursing

www.nursing.ucla.edu

The UCLA School of Nursing is highly ranked nationally and is internationally renowned for faculty research and publications. The School of Nursing offers a Prelicensure program leading to a Bachelor of Science degree. The Prelicensure program admits freshmen and junior-level transfer students and focuses on managing both individuals and population-based cohorts within an acute care hospital or medical center. Applicants are required to submit a supplemental application available at www.nursing.ucla.edu.

School of Theater, Film and Television

www.tft.ucla.edu

One of the leading programs of its kind in the world, the School of Theater, Film and Television is unique in that it formally recognizes the close relationships among these media. From study of the ancient origins of traditional theater to avant-garde video and technologically advanced stage and film production, students develop analytical skills while acquiring applied knowledge and experience in their chosen fields. Upon receipt of the application for admission, the individual department will require you to submit supplemental application materials.
